What is the most important data to recover? (To ensure data validity this section must be filled out)

Packing Instructions:

Enclose each hard drive in an anti-static electrostatic discharge (ESD) bag and seal. Aluminum foil can be used as a substitute. Use thick foam rubber or bubble wrap to secure the hard drive on all sides during shipment. When shipping more than one hard drive, ensure that the hard drives do not touch and are cushioned individually. DO NOT use envelopes or padded packs. Use a corrugated cardboard box for the exterior packaging.
